DESIGN SAM HECHT AND KIM COLIN
WÄSTBERG, SWEDEN

The w182 Pastille, designed by London-based Sam Hecht and Kim Colin for Wästberg, is a playful yet refined lighting fixture that adds character and charm to any space. Inspired by the simplicity of everyday objects, the Pastille features a round, compact form that provides both striking visual appeal and soft, ambient lighting.

Crafted from high-quality materials, The w182 Pastille offers a gentle, diffused light that creates a warm and inviting atmosphere in both residential and commercial settings. Its minimalist design makes it versatile, seamlessly fitting into modern interiors, whether placed as a pendant, wall light, or clustered together to create a dynamic lighting arrangement.

The w182 Pastille's clean lines and bold shape allow it to stand out while remaining understated. Perfect for spaces such as kitchens, living rooms, and hospitality areas, the Pastille brings a contemporary touch to any room while offering the perfect balance of form and function.
