DESIGN DAVID CHIPPERFIELD
WÄSTBERG, SWEDEN

The w241 Faro, designed by David Chipperfield for Wästberg, is a refined and versatile portable lamp that blends timeless design with modern functionality. Inspired by classic lanterns, Faro's minimalist form and high-quality craftsmanship make it a stylish and practical lighting solution for any setting.

With its rechargeable design and soft, diffused light, The w241 Faro is perfect for creating atmosphere in both indoor and outdoor spaces. Whether placed on a dining table, a bedside, or taken outside for an evening setting, it provides warm, glare-free illumination wherever it's needed.

Balancing elegance and adaptability, The w241 Faro offers the freedom to move light effortlessly while maintaining a sophisticated, contemporary aesthetic. A seamless fusion of form and function, it's an essential lighting piece for modern living.
